L. Dz. 369 /2016

Ms Joanna Czaja, Director of Studies, together with the teaching staff at LANGUS School of Foreign Languages have been providing English lessons to our employees since March 2014.

In total, 650 hours of instruction in general and business English have been conducted up till now. Teaching materials have been properly selected for our needs and students attendance and progress regularly monitored.

Both Ms Czaja and other instructors with LANGUS proved to be hardworking, innovative and dedicated English teachers. Their competence and character have catered very well for the needs and expectations of those of our staff who have been taking part in the language training and they have provided the students with an interactive, engaging and entertaining learning experience.

It is my pleasure to recommend Ms Czaja as an English teacher and LANGUS School of Foreign Languages as a professional training facility to all those who seek an effective and professional language training programme.

Best regards,
